Invitation

We are pleased to extend our invitation to the esteemed "International Conference on Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning" which will take place in Copenhagen, Denmark from May 12-14, 2025. The conference theme, "Advances in Deep Learning and Neural Networks," promises to offer attendees valuable insights and practical tips for daily clinical practice and professional growth from leading global researchers. With a focus on a wide range of topics, from basic to advanced research aspects in Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning, the conference will feature keynote presentations, oral sessions, panel discussions, poster presentations, workshops, symposiums, and a young researchers' forum, providing ample opportunities for learning, knowledge exchange, and networking. We eagerly anticipate your participation in this prestigious event and your valuable contribution to the discussions.

Thanks and Best Regards,
AIML Conference 2025
Organizing Committee Members

Scientific Sessions

Scientific Session Day 1

- Deep Learning
- Neural Networks
- Natural Language Processing (NLP)
- Computer Vision
- Reinforcement Learning
- Data Science
- Supervised and Unsupervised Learning
- Big Data and Data Mining

Scientific Session Day 2

- Predictive Analytics
- Image and Speech Recognition
- Robotics and Chatbots
- Generative Adversarial Networks (GANs)
- Decision Trees and Random Forests
- Artificial Neural Networks (ANNs)
- Support Vector Machines (SVMs)
- Clustering Algorithms

Scientific Session Day 3

- Dimensionality Reduction
- Gradient Descent
- Backpropagation
- Convolutional Neural Networks (CNN)
- Recurrent Neural Networks (RNN)
- Transfer Learning and Ensemble Learning
- Overfitting and Underfitting
- Bayesian Networks and Heuristics

About Copenhagen, Denmark

Copenhagen is the capital city of Denmark, located on the eastern coast of the island of Zealand, and it has a population of approximately 800,000 people in the metropolitan area. The city is the cultural, economic, and governmental center of Denmark and is considered one of the most livable cities in the world. Copenhagen has a rich history dating back to the Viking Age, and the city's architecture reflects its long history, with both medieval and modern buildings coexisting throughout the city. Some of the most famous landmarks in Copenhagen include the Little Mermaid statue, the Tivoli Gardens amusement park, the Rosenborg Castle, and the Nyhavn Harbor. The city is known for its commitment to sustainability and green living, with an extensive network of bicycle lanes and a goal to become carbon neutral by 2025. Copenhagen is also a hub for design and innovation, with a thriving startup scene and a strong emphasis on creativity and entrepreneurship. Copenhagen is home to numerous cultural institutions, including museums, art galleries, and theaters, and the city hosts several festivals and events throughout the year, such as the Copenhagen Jazz Festival, the Copenhagen Pride Parade, and the Christmas markets in Tivoli Gardens. Overall, Copenhagen is a vibrant, dynamic city that offers a high quality of life and many attractions for visitors and residents alike.
